Press Release

DATE: April 18, 2020

OFFICE POINT OF CONTACT: Chief Deputy Christopher Hodges

On April 18, 2020 at approximately 5:05 PM the Brown County Communications Center received a call advising of an animal attack. The caller advised that her husband, Jerry Jones (52 year old male), had been attacked by a bull and was not breathing. EMS and deputies arrived on scene at 10343 Tri-County Highway, Winchester, OH and located the Jones subject who was deceased.

The incident is still under investigation but there are no signs of criminal activity. The Brown County Sheriff's Office would like to thank the Winchester Fire & EMS, and the Brown County Coroner's Office for their assistance.
