Press Release

DATE: 12/29/20

OFFICE POINT OF CONTACT: Sheriff Gordon Ellis

On December 29, 2020, at approximately 6:55 PM, Inmate Hobert Roark with a date of birth of 01/11/1980 escaped from the Brown County Jail. Inmate Roark escaped by damaging a security window which provided him a point of egress to flee through an impound lot. A search of the area of the escape involving multiple law enforcement agencies, canine, and aviation assets was conducted but Inmate Roark was not located.

Inmate Roark was being held on multiple charges that included Burglary, Grand Theft, Receiving Stolen Property, Failure to Comply with a Police Officer and Possession of Firearms under Disability, and Escape.

The Brown County Sheriff's Office will be filing an Escape charge against Hobert Roark. Anyone with information concerning the possible location of Hobert Roark is asked to contact the Detective Sergeant Quinn Carlson at (937) 378-4435 extension 130.
